

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	11
The Development of Concepts and Principles in Halakha	17
Thirteen Years-old: The Age of Commandments?	19
The Thirty-Nine Classes of Work forbidden on the Sabbath	32
Measurements as Rabbinical Ordinances	63
Intent and Act in Tannaitic Teaching	72
Changes in Halakha and in its Interpretation	85
The Development of the Shevuth (שבות) Prohibitions on the Sabbath	87
Fasting on the Sabbath	109
The Significance of the 14th day of Nisan	123
Leaven Belonging to Gentiles or to the Sanctuary	135
Shavuot and its supplementary Days	141
“If you are taken captive, I will ransom you and take you back as my wife”	148
“Don’t Create Factions”	161
The Dynamics of the Halakha	181
“Even if they tell you it is right and in fact it is left... — heed them”	183
A Rabbinical Court may decree the Abrogation of a precept of the Torah	191
The Halakha and its Relationship to Social Reality	205
The Development of the Prosbol Enactment	217
From Biblical Authority to Rabbinic Injunction	237
From Biblical Authority to Rabbinic Injunction	239
Regarding the Antiquity of Several Sabbath Prohibitions	249
Ploughing and other work during the Shemita (Seventh year)	262
Is Halitza of Biblical Origin or based on Rabbinic Ordinances?	273

The Formation and Evolution of Halakhot	281
The History of Keriat Shema (קריאת שמע)	283
Preparing for the Sabbath	301
Kabbalat Shabbat (קבלת שבת)	326
Teaching and reading the Torah in the Synagogue on the Sabbath	350
Halakhic Interpretation (Midrash Halakha) and its application throughout the Ages	363
The Development of the Gezera Shavah (גזרה שוה)	365
Halakhic Interpretation (Midrash Halakha) of Scripture in the Post-Talmudic Period	374
Indices:	395
a. Sources 395
b. General Index 413	