

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LAW & LITERATURE

Introduction	Shulamit Almog	Law and Literature as a Journey	5
Links and Borders		A Judge and an Author - Conversations with Itzhak Englard and Abraham B. Yehoshua	17
	Jeanne Gaakeer	Literary-Legal Remedies: An Account of Law and Literature	31
	Daniel Statman	Law, Literature and Mercy	53
	Ariel Bendor	Literary Critique of Law: Critical Comments	85
	Leora Bilsky	Law as Literature: a Response to Ariel Bendor	119
Law and Literature in the Ancient World	Gabriel Zoran	Rhetoric as an Intermediary between Law and Literature	129
	Adi Parush	Revenge, Justice and the Function of the Court in Aeschylus' Play Eumenides	147
Judicial Stories	Zipora Kagan	Halakhah and Aggadah - The Paradoxical Context	213
	Admiel Kosman	Obedience to the Law Versus Spontaneous Charismatic Action - Halakhah, Magic and Dialogue	219
Law, Literature and Judaism	Peter Brooks	Policing Stories	249
	Adi Ayal	Economic Rhetoric: Economics and Literature in Legal Analysis	263
	Jonathan Yovel	Narrative Justice	283
	Orit Kamir	An Exercise in Law and Literature: Law as Translation and the Constitution of Collective Memory - Rabin's Assassination Case and Mahmud Darwish	323
Law and Language	Ruth Halperin-Kaddary	"And Thou Shall Teach Them to your Sons, Not to your Daughters" - Inclusion and Exclusion of Women in Halakhic Language	353
	Shulamit Almog	"And These Names are Eternal" - Hebrew, Gender and Law	373
Law in Hebrew Literature	Chaya Shacham	Between Judgement and Moral Introspection: Nathan Alterman on the Kefar-Kasem Massacre	399
	Nitza Ben-Dov	The Lady Judges, Death Threatens: The Ashtoreth Paradigm in the Works of Abraham B. Yehoshua	417