

CONTENTS

Foreword		5
Haskalah on the Brink
Tova Cohen	On the Liminal Status of the Student of Haskalah Literature: Yehuda Friedlander's Research Enterprise	9
Yaffah Berlovitz	Mapu and Yavetz in Eretz-Israel: On Identifying Poetical Ambiguity	29
Michal Arbell	The Rise of the Hebrew Novel: The Problem of Closure in the Works of S. Y. Abramovitz	63
Hamutal Tsamir	Between Rachel (Morpurgo) and Rachel (Bluvstein): The Absence of Women's Poetry in the Second Half of the Twentieth Century	101
Ziva Shamir	The Point on Top of the Yod by Y. L. Gordon: A Poem Composed on the Verge of a New Era	157
Borderline Situations in Hebrew Literature and Western Culture
Galili Shahar	Allegories of Sanctity: Jews and Modernism in Germany	167
Michal Ben-Horin	Nazism and Musical Biographies: Thomas Mann and Günter Grass	193
Rella Kushelevsky	The Metaphor of the Empty Place in Yehudit Hendel's Work: From "My Friend B.'s Solemn Feast" to The Empty Place	213

Nili Gold	Walking the "Inner Streets": Ephraim by Yoel Hoffmann	229
Lilach Nethanel	On Meaning – An Introduction to French Semiotics: Followed by a Translation of A. -J. Greimas's Foreword to his On Meaning II (Du sens II [Paris: Seuil, 1983])	249

Poetic Justice

Danielle Gurevitch Shlomy Mualem	On "Poetic Justice"	267
Ruth Lorand	How Do the Wheels of Poetic Justice Turn?	271
Yedidia Z. Stern	The Reciprocal Relationship between Justice and Identity	291
Ruth Reichelberg	Writing as Judgment and the Judgment of Writing	307
Gershon Shaked	Poetic Justice: Portrait of an Artist as a Victim of his Art: On Death in Venice by Thomas Mann and Aggadot Hasofer by S. Y. Agnon	319
Shlomy Mualem	Borges and Wittgenstein: Aspect-Change Narratives and Revolving Systems of Justice	337
Danielle Gurevitch	(Imagi) Nation: Poetic Justice in the Service of Monarchy : On King Arthur Legends as a Political Tool in the Plantagenet and Tudor Dynasties	357
Yehuda Friedlander	Bibliography	383
English Abstracts		V