

CONTENTS

Reuven Zur	Declared and Intuitive Prosody of Medieval Poets – A Cognitive and Comparative Study	9
Ariel Zinder	Time and Space in Hebrew Pleas for Forgiveness – From the Bible to the Early Piyyut	39
Tova Cohen	A Hidden Harp: Expression and Concealment in the First Book of Hebrew Poems Written by a Woman	71
Svetlana Natkovich	Jabotinsky's Linguistic Approach: Between History and Myth, Between Grammar and Phonetics	99
Hagit Halperin	Alexander Penn or 'the Hebrew Yesenin'	121
Anat Weisman	The Courage for the Mundane: On Lea Goldberg's Paradigmatic Temper	137
Ziva Shamir	Celestial Melodies: Lea Goldberg – Poetics and Politics	163
Chaya Shacham	Coach, Journey, and Liminal Space: On Universal Symbol and Initiation Processes in Lea Goldberg's Oeuvre	197
Shahar Bram	Dan Pagis and the Double Faceted City	231
Michael Gluzman	Avot Yeshurun's Breathturn	245

Ofir Achimeir	‘Drowned in the Light, Forgot my Name’: Between Nullification of the Self and Selfhood in Jerusalem’s Poetry of Zelda	267
Heddy Shait	Paradoxes and Contradictions in Hezi Leskly’s Work	311
Dana Olmert	‘We’ in Yona Wollach’s Early Poetry	347
English Abstracts		V