

CONTENTS

Introduction		9
Yael Reshef	The Contribution of Children's Songs to the Revival of Hebrew	13
Zohar Shavit	"Go Abroad and Feel at Home" – On Domestication in Translated Hebrew Children's Literature	35
Ziva Shamir	Antinomistic Ideas Ingrained in Bialik's Children's Literature	75
Shai Rudin	Politics, Heroism and Creativity: On Israeli Biographies for Children and Young Adults	93
Einat Baram Eshel	Miriam Yalan-Shteklis and Yehuda Atlas: A Continuation or a Revolution?	135
Nathan Cohen	No More "Little Jews without Beards": Insights into Yiddish Children's Literature in Eastern Europe prior to World War I	155
Yossef Fund	Hamodia Hatzair : A Platform for the Development of Orthodox Children's Literature	171

David Guedj	Jewish and Hebrew Education Across French Schools in 1920s Morocco	207
Naama Harel	A Portrait of the Compassionate One as a Young Girl, or the First Hebrew Dog	235
Rotem Preger Wagner	“Mute Friends” – Between Children and Animals in Early 20th Century Hebrew Fiction	253
Dorit Lemberger	“I am in Some Way my Child”: A Study, Inspired by Levinas, of the Stages in the Development of an Ethical Stance in David Grossman’s Works for Young Readers	275
Vered Tohar	Worlds of Imagination: Nurit Yuval’s Works for Children as a Bridge Between Past and Present	301
English Abstracts		V