

CONTENTS

Preface	7
Introduction	9
Part One: Society
Chapter 1: David's Curse of Joab and the Social Significance of the Expression maḥ^azîq bappelek	47
Chapter 2: Adoption of Foundlings in the Bible and in Mesopotamian Documents	70
Chapter 3: Family Planning and Population Control in the Ancient Near East	88
Chapter 4: The Paranymp – His Status and Role in Ancient Near Eastern Society	103
Part Two: Law
Chapter 5: Jacob's Heel and his Deception: Inheritance and Succession in the Bible	133
Chapter 6: The Expressions hikkîrû and wayyîtab b^e'ênêhem in the Story of David's Mourning of Abner's Death (2 Samuel 3: 36) and their Technical-Legal Load	151
Chapter 7: Toward the Legal Meaning of the Phrase yeš/ên l^e'ēl yādî in the Bible	162
Chapter 8: Driving a Nail into a Wall in Ancient Mesopotamian Law: Posting a Public Notice	180
Chapter 9: 'The Nail in the Wall' – The Nail Clause in Old Babylonian Wills of Nadîtum-Priestesses from Sippar	194

Part Three: Custom

Chapter 10: ‘ paḥad Yiṣḥāq ’ (Genesis 31: 42, 53) and the Oath by the Thigh	207
Chapter 11: The Hem of the Garment, the Lap and the Bosom and their Usage in Symbolic Gestures in the Bible	215
Chapter 12: Crossing over a Wooden Pestle as a Symbolic Act of Relinquishment of Rights in Ancient Babylonia	238
Chapter 13: Imprinting Foundlings’ Feet in Clay and the Symbolic Meaning of the Foot in Ancient Babylonian Law	247
Chapter 14: šillām paṭārūm – ‘To Unfasten the Cloth Pin’: Copula Carnalis and its Place in Marriage Ceremonies in the Ancient Near East	259
Bibliography	279
List of Abbreviations	304
Indexes	309
Subjects and Names	309
Words and Expressions	332
Sources	331
List of the Articles Published in the Past	350