

CONTENTS

Avidov Lipsker, Tamar Wolf-Monzon	Introduction	9
--------------------------------------	--------------	---

From Days of Yore

Uri Zvi Greenberg	On the Publication of Streets of the River	17
Yehoshu'a Heshel Yevin	Memory and Yearning in the Poetry of Uri Zvi Greenberg	25
Baruch Kurzweil	The Poems of Streets of the River	45
Gideon Katzenelson	“The Song of the Organist” (Ugavar) – Key to the Poetry of Uri Zvi Greenberg	55

Studies

Benjamin Harshav	The Rivers of Poetry: The Rhythmic Flow in Streets of the River	65
Tamar Wolf-Monzon, Zohar Livnat	Rhetoric and Music in Streets of the River	87
Ziva Shamir	“Images of his Pursuers from within his Image”: Alterman Follows Greenberg – Between Streets of the River and City of the Dove	105
Avidov Lipsker	“Pursued by the Fear of Events”: Testimony and Witnesses in the Poems: “To the Mountain of Corpses in the Snow” and “The Grave in the Forest” by Uri Zvi Greenberg	135

Haviva Pedaya	Kidron River – Poetics of Place: Streets of the River between Great Fear and the Moon and “The Cleft of the Rock of Etam”	159
Hillel Weiss	In the Secret of the Kinneret and the Jordan	187
Ze’ev (Velvel) Chernin	Other Rivers	201
Shmu’el T. Huppert	Standing in the Abyss: A Study of Uri Zvi Greenberg’s “A Poem of Vision from the Abyss”	213
Hannan Hever	“Beautiful Motherland of Death”: Uri Zvi Greenberg’s Radical Lament on the Destruction of European Jewry	241
Orit Meital	“Their Faces Are Shadow and Shadow Their Voice”: The Collective Poetry of Mourning and the Use of the Dead Mother’s Voice in Streets of the River	257
Documents		283
Selected Bibliography		309