

CONTENTS

Preface	7*
Steven D. Fraade Anonymity and Redaction in Legal Midrash: A Preliminary Probe	9*
Richard Kalmin The Function and Dating of the Stam and the Writing of History	31*
Günter Stemberger The Redaction and Transmission of Sifra	51*
Hebrew Section
Introduction	7
Yaakov Elman The Beginning of Tractate Pesahim in the Bavli and Yerushalmi : Questions of Redaction and Formation	9
Robert Brody The Contribution of the Yerushalmi to the Dating of the Anonymous Material in the Bavli	27
Judith Hauptman The Three Basic Components of the Sugya : The Tannaitic Passages, the Amoraic Statements and the Anonymous Commentary	39
Menachem Kahana Initial Observations regarding the Baraita deMelekheth haMishkan : Text, Redaction and Publication	55

Menachem Katz

Division into Sugyot in the Yerushalmi: Redactional Trends and their Significance

69

Arnon Atzmon

Late Neo-Classical Midrash: Redaction and Formation

87

Shamma Friedman

‘Wonder Not at a Gloss in which the Name of an Amora is Mentioned’:
The Amoraic Statements and the Anonymous Material in the Sugyot of the Bavli Revisited

101