

CONTENTS

Foreword	iv
Dov Schwartz Religious Zionism as a Cultural Phenomenon – Introduction	v

A. Thought

Dov Schwartz Rabbi Soloveitchik on Religious Zionism: A Psychological Interpretation	9
Shalom Ratzabi On the Question of Cooperation with Secular Zionism in the Thought of Rabbi Josef B. Soloveitchik	35
Moshe Hellinger Yeshayahu Leibowitz’s Early Thought on Religious Zionism and the Reasons for its Abandonment	67
Zehavit Gross An “Orange” Voice and “Blue and White” Hands: National Religious Zionism Torn Asunder in an Uncertain Era	91

B. Leadership and Halakhah

Aaron Kampinsky Rabbinical Organization within Religious Zionism: The Case of the “Hever Harabanim”	121
--	-----

Neria Guttel
“He Whom One Loves, He Rebukes”: The Complexity of Rav Shaul Yisraeli’s Attitude to the Personalities, Institutions and Philosophy of Religious Zionism 145

Yosef Achituv
Religious Zionism between Ideology and Halakhah 169

Chaim Burgansky
Inclusion or Occupation: The Attitude of Religious Zionist
Halakhic Authorities towards the Arab Residents of Israel 193

C. Education, Family and Gender

Yuval Dror
The Religious Kibbutz Education System: The Past,
the Present and a Comparative View 221

Mati Dombrowsky
The Zionist Talmud Torah Schools as a Reflection of the Tendency to Separation and Seclusion in Religious Zionism 241

Nechama Ne’eman
The Family as a Factor in Abandoning the Religious Way of Life among Young Adults from the National-Religious Society 273

Dov Schwartz and Judy Tydor Baumel-Schwartz
Prolegomena to the Study of Women’s Status and Identity in the Religious Zionist Movement 309

D. Religious Zionism in the Diaspora

Asaf Kaniel
The Educational Activity of the Mizrachi Movement
in Poland, 1919-1939 333

Haim Genizi and Age Shemesh (Suranyi) The Rehabilitation of the Religious Zionist Movement in Hungary after the Holocaust , 1945-1949	353
Jacob Zur R. Dr. Adolf Altmann and the Zionist Movement in Hungary and in Central Europe	377
Yishai Arnon From “Love of Zion” to Religious Zionist Activism: “Bnei Akiva” in Cairo (1943-1946)	411
Silvia Schenkolewski-Kroll Religious Zionism in Argentina	451
Chaim I. Waxman Structural Decline and Understanding the Message: The Mizrachi Organization, Religious Zionism, and American Orthodox Jewry in the Second Half of the Twentieth Century	473