

CONTENTS

Foreword	9
----------	---

Studies in the Book of Isaiah

The Historical Background and Significance of Isaiah 1:10–17	13
Construction and Meaning of Isaiah 1:18–20	27
The Description of the Coming of the Enemy in Isaiah 5:26–30	39
Prophecy of Rebuke or Consolation? (Isaiah 7:18–25)	54
An Admonition Prophecy to the Leaders of Judah (Isaiah 10:28–32)	68
The Oracle for the Philistines (Isaiah 14:28–32)	87
Isaiah’s Prophecy in the Light of the Ashdodian Revolt against Sargon II and Its Suppression (Isaiah 20)	104
The Time of Hezekiah’s Illness and the Visit of the Delegation from Babylonia	123
The Social Background of Reproach Prophecies from the Latter Half of the 8th Century BCE	137

Studies in Other Scriptural Books

Saul’s Pursuit of David in the Territory of Judah and its Geographic Background	145
The Blind and the Lame in the Book of Samuel	166

The Negotiations between Israel and Aram (1 Kings 20:31–34)	181
Two Lamentation on Cities in Judah, a Literary-Historical Study of Micah 1: 10–16	202
Gedud, A Place Name in the Shephela of Judah	220
The Riv with the Inhabitants of Judea in the Time of Ahaz (Mic. 6:1–8)	233
Micah 7:8–10 – Message of Encouragement	245
The Prayer for the Restoration of the Israelite Kingdom in the Book of Micah: A Literary Analysis and the Historical Background	259
The Reward of the God-Fearing (Ps. 128)	272

History and Historiography

The City of Ashkelon in the Biblical Period	283
El-Amarna Mu'rašt and Biblical Moreshet	306
Bibliographic Abbreviations	312
Original Publication of the Essays	379
Sources Index	381
Subject Index	417