

CONTENTS

Preface	5
Chapter 1: On Miracles, Nature and Religion	9
On miracles 9; On nature 11; On religion 17
Chapter 2: On Miracles and Jewish Law (Halakha)	24
The theoretical basis for philosophical analysis of Jewish Law 24; On the methodology 26; The questions for discussion 37
Chapter 3: A Blessing Recited at a Place Where Miracles Happened	39
Chapter 4: Thanksgiving Prayers for Miracles	88
The Hallel prayer 89; The Al HaNisim prayer 105; The She'asa Nisim La'Avoteynu prayer on Hanukkah and Purim 107
Chapter 5: Petitionary Prayer and the Reality: Reciprocal Relationship	116
A futile prayer 116; A prayer for rain 124; A prayer for the sick 130
Chapter 6: Reliance on Divine Intervention	158
Confronting dangerous places or situations 159; Taking a risk while fulfilling a commandment 166; Actively avoiding reliance on miracle by taking an action 205; Avoiding physical risk by committing a sin 208
Chapter 7: The Probability of Miracles in the Past and in the Future	214
The legal status of a married woman whose husband has disappeared 214; Compensatory damages 233; The miracles in the Temple 239;

The miracle as a test for God and man 245; Supernatural revelation in
Halakhic rulings 254; Miracle and nature in other Halakhic issues 263

Summary	284
The main facts 284; A final remark on the methodology 301
Bibliography	304
Indexes	317