

CONTENTS

| | |
|----------|---|
| Foreword | 7 |
|----------|---|

Poetry

Ephraim Hazan

| | |
|---|----|
| The Compositional Process as a Poetic Device in the Panegrics of R. Yehuda Halevi | 13 |
|---|----|

Juliette Hasin

| | |
|---|----|
| “Headstone” in Jewish Culture from R. Yehuda Halevi until Dalia Ravikovitch | 25 |
|---|----|

Dorit Lemberger

| | |
|---|----|
| The Poem “My Desire for the Living God hath Constrained Me” as a Key to Understanding Dialectic in the Poetry of R. Yehuda Halevi | 47 |
|---|----|

From Poetry to Philosophy

Ephraim Hazan

| | |
|--|----|
| “I Asked about a Righteous Man, Not a Ruler”: The Righteous Man as a Ruler in the Poetry of R. Yehuda Halevi | 71 |
|--|----|

Yosef Yuval Tobi

| | |
|---|----|
| R. Yehuda Halevi’s Attitude Toward Arabic and Hebrew Secular Poetry and Literature in the Kuzari | 81 |
|---|----|

Philosophy

Dialogue

Dorit Lemberger

| | |
|--|-----|
| Pragmatism and Universalism in the Language of The Kuzari | 123 |
|--|-----|

Avi Sagi

The Phenomenology of Religious Life: Meaning and Dialogical
Text in The Kuzari 151

Dov Schwartz

International Dateline: The Count of the Days and the Ways of Dispute in The Kuzari 193

Motifs

Daniel J. Lasker

Proselyte Judaism, Christianity and Islam in the Thought of
R. Yehuda Halevi 207

Hananel Mack

R. Yehuda Halevy and R. I. Abravanel, Cain and Abel and Being
Close to God 231

Dov Schwartz

Repentance in The Kuzari 247