

CONTENTS

Author's Note	11
Introduction: Meshal Haqadmoni – A Glimpse into the 13th Century	15
Chapter 1: Meshal Haqadmoni	21
A. Isaac ben Shlomo Ibn Sahula – the man and his work 21; B. The objectives of the book 27; C. Meshal Haqadmoni – is it really a maqama? 34 D. The book's target audience 46; E. A look at the book's editions and research 48
Chapter 2: Structure and Foundational Principles	55
A. The parts of the book 55; B. The frame story 57; C. Formative structural principles 67; D. The poems and their role within the structure 70; E. The stories and how they are integrated 72; F. The opening and closing formulas of the stories in the book 82; G. Structural connections between the sections 97; H. Structure in the service of an idea 112
Chapter 3: Polemic Tendencies in Artistic Guise	115
A. Means that justify the end 115; B. Victory through poetry 117; C. Biblical paraphrasing in the service of polemics 125; D. Debate – principle, genre and the art of discourse 144; E. Contrast 150; F. Scientific discussions – knowledge is power 154
Chapter 4: “The Advantage of Fables and Interpreting the Unknown with the Known”: On the Animal Fables in the Book	169
A. On the nature of the fable 169; B. The fables in the book – their nature and purpose 172; C. Animal fables – form, uniqueness and Judaization 176

Chapter 5: “It shall remove from their hearts the books of Homer, the heretics and Epicurus”:	206
Sources and Originality
A. Originality versus the influences of medieval literature	206; B. Ibn Sahula’s declaration of originality 209; C. Citations, sayings, adages and anecdotes 230; D. “And I saw fit to depict” 244
Chapter 6: Meshal Haqadmoni as a Reflection of Medieval Jewish Society	254
A. Social criticism in medieval literature	254; B. Social criticism in Meshal Haqadmoni 256; C. Echoes of Judeo-Christian relations 283
Chapter 7: “Covertly and Overtly”	301
A. On the revealed and the hidden	301; B. “Wisdom begins with the fear of God” 305; C. Encouragement – “Wickedness proceeds from the wicked, but the hand of God will not be upon you” 308; D. On the question of divine justice 313; E. Repentance and rectification of character traits 330; F. Exile, redemption and the Land of Israel 336; G. Traces of mysticism – reading through a different light 342
Afterword: “Do not judge a book by its cover”	353
Appendices
Appendix A: Scientific Discussions	355
Appendix B: Matters of Thought and Morality	362
References	366
Meshal Haqadmoni – Editions	366; Full Manuscripts 366; Sources 367; Studies 373; Dictionaries 407
Indices	408
Personalities	408; Written Works 412; Concepts 415; Animals 422; Places 425; Manuscripts 426
English Abstract	vii