

CONTENTS

Preface	9
Chapter One: The Discourse of Modernism on the History of Literature and Art	13
A. The Destructive Discourse of Modernism 15; B. The ‘Climatic’ Discourse on Hebrew Modernism 34
Chapter Two: The Origin of the Ecological Discourse on Culture	45
A. The Historical ‘Climatic’ Discourse on Culture 47; B. Gregory Bateson and the Ecology of Mind 57: Meta-methodology 57; Symmetrical Schismogenesis and Complementary Schismogenesis – From Anthropology to Poetics 59; The Pathology of the ‘Double Bind’ and its Linguistic Model 66; Ecology of Mind and Culture 72
Chapter Three: Principles and Basic Concepts of Ecological Discourse on Literature	81
A. Principles of Ecological Discourse on Literature 83: Homology as a Methodological Basis in the Ecological Discourse on Literature 83; Nesting 93; The Equal Value of Synchrony and Diachrony 99; Destratification in Poetic-Ecological Questions 100; B. Basic Concepts of Ecological Discourse on Literature 103: Ecology and Ecosophy 103; Literary Environment 104; Literary Habitat 109; Literary-Cultural Climate 111; ‘Ecological Niche’ and ‘New Ecologies’ 113; Ecological Maps 123; C. ‘The Mediocre Taste’ and ‘Hesitation Areas’ of the Literary Text 126; D. What is ‘Clean’? or: ‘Anti-Nesting’ Thought: Ecoethics, Ecomythology, Ecocriticism and the Critical Discourse on Literature 130: Ecoethics or Ecomythology? 136

Chapter Four: Ecological Readings in Hebrew Literature	145
A. The Invented Story of the Revolt of Berdyczewski and the ‘Young Guard’ and its Literary Ecology 147: ... And Who Were the ‘Young Guard’ Anyway? – The First Year (1893): Inventing a Foundation 151; In the Dusk of Evening, In the Dark Hours of Night? – The Second Year (1897): How did the ‘Young Guard’ Meet? 169; Historiography as a Tradition of Revolutions 174; B. Ecology of Jewish Culture in an Assimilated Environment in Aharon Appelfeld’s Prose 179: The Crack or the Project of Marking the Jewish Genome 179; The Climate of Forgetting: The Comforting Darkness of the Crack 188; Exposure and Survival in the Climate of a Penal Colony 193; The Age of Revelation – The Return to the Crack 197; C. In Pairs or a Singular Figure in His Generation? A Climate of Pairs in the Historiographic Thought of Hebrew Literature: The Case of S.Y. Agnon and H. Hazaz 198
References	209
Indexes	223
English Abstract	vii