

CONTENTS

Foreword	9
List of Abbreviations and Signs	11
Introduction
1. R. Abraham Ibn Ezra – The Man and the Exegete	13
2. Ibn Ezra's Works	13
3. The Two Commentaries on Esther – Their Time and Place	15
4. The Text Witnesses, Super Commentaries, and Previous Editions	17
a. First Recension	17
The Manuscripts that We Have Used	17
The Manuscript 'Families'	19
First Printed Editions	20
Secondary Witnesses	20
Super Commentaries	21
Ibn Ezra's Two Commentaries on Esther – Previous Editions	22
Annotated Translations into Foreign Languages	24
b. Second Recension	24
The Manuscripts that We Have Used	24
The Manuscript 'Families'	24
Printed Editions, The First Printed Edition	25
Secondary Witnesses	25
Super Commentaries and Previous Editions	26
'Infection' of Text Witnesses	26
5. Ibn Ezra's Predecessors	26
6. Our Edition	29
The Purpose and Structure of the Edition	29
Our 'Basic' Text – An Amended Diplomatic Edition	30
The Critical Apparatus	30
The Super Commentary and the Chapter of "Completions"	33
The Synopsis	34
7. Issues that Remain Unresolved	35
8. R. Abraham Ibn Ezra as Exegete, Grammarian, and Expositor
on History, Geography, and Realia	36
Accuracy, Profoundness, and Originality	36
History	37
Geography	37

Table of Contents

Realia	38
Grammatical Comments	39
Interchanging Letters	40
Topical Distinctions Between Synonymous Words and Expressions	40
Alternative Explanations – Determinations and Hesitations	41
Was Ibn Ezra Indeed an Exegete of the Literal Meaning?	42
Attitudes towards Talmudic Literature	43
Attitudes towards His Predecessors	45
9. Ibn Ezra's Biblical Text	45
10. Comparing the Two Commentaries	46
Ibn Ezra's Vocabulary of Terms and Words	48
First Recension	55
Second Recension	113
Completions	178
Synopsis	193
Indexes
Bibliography	240
Index of Biblical and Talmudic Sources	250
Index of Names	264
Index of Topics	267